EXTRAORDINARY

GOVERNMENT OF GOA, DAMAN AND DIU

Works, Education and Tourism Department

Notification

5/1/79/WET

Short title and commencement

1. The Government of Goa, Daman and Diu in supersession of Notification dated 7th August, 1970 published in Official Gazette Series I No. 21 dated 20th August, 1970, hereby frames the following Rules, namely: —

2. These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Press Representatives Accreditation Rules, 1982.

3. These Rules will come into force from the date of their notification in the Official Gazette.

Definition

4. In these Rules the following words have the meanings, mentioned against them unless a different intention appears from the subject or context:

a) "State" means the Union Territory of Goa, Daman and Diu.

b) "Government" means the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu.

c) "Director" means the Director of Information of the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu.

d) "Press Representatives" means the correspondent, photographer or cartoonist representing any newspaper, news agency, feature agency, news photo-agency, broadcasting concern or television.

e) "Press Accreditation Committee" subsequently referred to in these Rules as "the Committee", means the Committee constituted by the Government to advise the Government in respect of accrediting Press Representatives working at the headquarters of the Government.

f) "Editor" means the person who is declared as the editor under the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867.

g) "Newspaper" is a chronicle of events and news alongwith views and registered as such with Competent Government Authority.

Application of rules

5. These Rules apply to the accreditation to the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu at Headquarters Panaji, of Press Representatives.

Press Accreditation Committee

6. The State Press Accreditation Committee shall be constituted of four members excluding member Secretary.

7. Two members will be the nominees of the All Goa Editors Association and two members will be nominees of the Goa Union of Journalists.

8. The normal term of the Accreditation Committee shall be two years on the expiry of which a new Committee shall be constituted.

9. The Committee shall meet as a general rule, once every three months.

10. Three members including the Member-Secretary shall form a quorum of a meeting.

11. Seven clear days notice shall be given for convening a meeting of the Committee. But emergent meetings can, however, be held after giving a 48 hours' notice.

12. The names of persons submitting application together with such other details as may be available, and particulars of proposals for accreditation, if any, shall be circulated to the members alongwith the notice of the meeting. In addition, the Committee may consider any other application for accreditation, about which proper intimation could not be given in time.

Application for accreditation

13. The application for the accreditation should be submitted by the Editor of the newspapers, news agency, AIR etc. to the Member-Secretary, Director of Information of Government of Goa, Daman and Diu. Full details about the Professional experience for the correspondent should be furnished with the application for accreditation, on a prescribed form available from the Member Secretary. The Member Secretary will refer the applications to the Press Accreditation Committee for discussion in the immediate next available meeting.

Conditions for accreditation

14. The Correspondent of newspaper, news agency, etc. shall fulfil following conditions for accreditation.

i) His residence should be normally in the vicinity of Panaji or he should submit a address in Panaji at the time of application for accreditation and thereafter during the period of accreditation.

ii) His full time occupation should be professional of Journalism.

iii) At the time of application the applicant who seeks accreditation should have spent not less than five years in the profession of journalism or should be a person of sufficient experience and standing to be able to discharge his duties in a competent responsible manner.

15. Notwithstanding the provision from the clause (i) to (iii) of the rule 14, the Committee will be guided by the following to grant or recommend withdrawal.

a) Regularity of newspapers/news agencies.

b) the applicant should satisfy the Committee for his accreditation, by substantiating his claim for accreditation with necessary paper in respect of salary income etc. whenever Committee requires.

16. Validity of the accreditation will be for one year from January 1st to December 31st after which all cases shall be reviewed afresh.

17. In case of news agencies etc. the factors to be taken into consideration to determine accreditation are:

i) Nature and type of the agency.

ii) Method distribution of its services.

iii) Centre of the newspaper catered for.

18. Bonafide journalists, who either free lance or who represent periodicals published at interval longer than one week shall not be accredited but they may at the discretion of Director of Information be given such facilities as felt necessary.

Number of correspondents to be accredited

19. Newspaper or agency will not be entitled to have more than two accredited Correspondents for the dailies published in Goa, Daman and Diu subject to the condition that not more than one accredited reporter will claim facilities or present himself at any function or organised conducted tour of Government within or outside Union Territory.

Effect of accreditation

20. Accreditation does not confer any official status on a correspondent. Government merely recognises that one accredited correspondent represents the newspaper or news agency which employs him.

Correspondents should not have letterheads and visiting cards with the words "Accredited to the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu".

Accreditation is personal

21. Accreditation is personal and not transferable.

Accreditation card for press representatives

22. Accreditation card bearing a passport size photograph of the Press representatives will be issued to an accredited representative. The accreditation card will normally be utilised for attending press conferences convened by the Government, or any authorised Government officer and for entry into Government offices. The accreditation cards shall not be admissible for attending special functions or conferences, where entry is covered by special invitation cards and security passes. This card will entitle the holder to receive the facilities accrued to him by Government from time to time in respect of medical, transport, housing, Government accommodation in the Union Territory.

List of accredited press representatives

23. The Director shall maintain a list of accredited correspondents, photographers or cartoonists representing any newspaper or news agency or feature agency, news photo-agency, a broadcasting concern or television.

Review of the list of accredited press representatives

24. The list of accredited correspondents will be brought upto date once during the year by the Member Secretary of PAC in consultation with the Chairman, in the light of changes in respect of accredited correspondent of outside newspapers reporters of dailies of this territory.

Withdrawal of accreditation of press representatives

25. A Press Representative will be liable to dis-accreditation if: —

a) He uses information and facilities accorded to him for non-journalistic purposes:

b) in the course of his duties as correspondent, he behaves in an undignified or unprofessional manner.

c) he ignores or violates the conditions on which information and facilities are provided by Government, or acts contrary to any provisions of these rules;

d) he causes wilful publication of news that is incorrect or false, in so far as Government are concerned. But in case the newspaper itself is responsible and not the accredited press representatives for the wilful publication of false, malafide or incorrect reports, or abuse of confidence, the newspaper concerned will be liable to disaccreditation i. e. Action under this Rule will be taken by the Chairman of PAC after the matter has been referred to him in writing by the agrieved party. The PAC after due study of the complaint recommends appropriate action to the Government against the concerned journalists. The Government decision in this regard will be final.

Notice of termination of accreditation of a press representative

26. When an accredited correspondent, photographer or cartoonist ceases to represent a newspaper, a news agency, a feature agency, a photo agency, a broadcasting concern or television on behalf of which he is accredited, the fact should be brought to the notice of the Director, in writing by the correspondent, or by the Editor, or the Manager concerned, within fifteen days. Failing this, the matter may be reported to the Committee by the Director for necessary action.

Continuous absence from the headquarters

27. An accredited correspondent who is continuously absent for three months from the Headquarters shall forfeit his accreditation. This period may be extended by three months more on a written request from the Editor or the Manager concerned.

Representation against decision

28. Newspapers/agencies and correspondents can make representation to the Secretary of Information against any decision. Such representation should reach the concerned Secretary of Information to the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu within two calendar months from the date on which the decision in question was communicated to the newspaper, agency or correspondent concerned.

29. Normally the number of accredited correspondents will not exceed 25, but power shall rest with Government to either raise or decrease this number, in consultation with PAC. All these Rules are also applied to press photographers.

30. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules Government shall be free to take any action warranted by circumstances in matters relating to accreditation and disaccreditation and in giving press facilities and in all these cases Government decision shall be final.

By order and in the name of the Administrator of Goa, Daman and Diu.

A. V. Pimenta, Under Secretary to the Government of Goa, Daman & Diu.

Panaji, 8th March, 1982.

Notification

2-2-81-FSH

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Goa, Daman and Diu Marine Fishing Regulation Act, 1980 (3 of 1981) the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Goa, Daman and Diu Marine Fishing Regulation Rules, 1982.

(2) They shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.—In these rules,—

(a) 'Act' means the Goa, Daman and Diu Marine Fishing Regulation Act, 1980 (3 of 1981).

(b) 'form' means a form appended to these rules;

(c) 'section' means a section of the Act.

3. Application for licensing of fishing vessels under section 6.—(1) Every owner of a fishing vessel which is mechanically propelled shall make an application accompanied by a licence fee of Rs. 205/- to the authorised officer, for the grant of a licence for using such fishing vessel in the specified area in Form A.

(2) The authorised officer shall, while granting or refusing the licence, apart from the conditions specified in clause (a), (b) & (c) of sub-section (4) of section 6, have regard to the number of fishing vessels already licensed in the area where the fishing vessel is sought to be operated.

(3) If the authorised Officer, after making such enquiries as deemed fit, decides to grant the licence applied for he shall issue a licence in Form B, which shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of issue.

(4) The authorised officer, having regard to the area in which the fishing vessel is sought to be operated, may direct the applicant to deposit an amount which shall be not less than Rs. 210/- but not more than Rs. 250/- as security deposit for the due observance of the conditions of the licence.

(5) Licence issued will be valid for one year and will have to be renewed annually by paying renewal fee of Rs. 50/-.

4. Licensing of fishing nets.—(1) The owner of a fishing net desirous of obtaining a licence for the same shall make an application to the authorised officer in Form C. The application shall be accompanied by a fee of Rs. 50/-.

(2) A licence in Form D shall be issued to the applicant on depositing of a sum not less than Rs. 50/- but not more than Rs. 75/- as may be directed by the authorised officer, as security deposit, for the due observance of the conditions specified in the licence.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule net which has been registered under the Goa, Daman and Diu Fisheries Rules 1981, shall subject to the condition of depositing the security deposit, referred to in sub-rule (2) be deemed to have been licensed under these rules.

5. Amendment of licences.—(1) The authorised officer, if after holding an enquiry under sub-section (1) of section 11 is satisfied that the additional conditions should be imposed upon the licensee who has been granted a licence either under section 6 or under section 8, may call upon such licensee to produce the licence for amending it and on such production, he may after any condition or add one or more conditions or demand, subject to the provisions of rule 3 or rule 4 as the case may be, and after giving an opportunity of being heard to the licensee additional security deposit.

(2) If such a licensee fails to comply with any order passed by the authorised officer under sub-rule (1), the licence shall be cancelled forthwith.

6. Registration of vessels. — (1) Every application under sub-rule (2) of section 12 for registration of a vessel shall be made in Form E.

(2) Every application under sub-rule (1) shall be accompanied with a fee of Rs. 50/-.

(3) The authorised officer shall, after making such inquiry as he deems fit, issue a registration certificate in Form F.

(4) The authorised officer shall maintain a register in Form G in respect of all vessels registered under this rule.

(5) Every vessel registered under this rule shall display the registration number allotted to it by the authorised officer on both sides of the bow and the aft side of the vessel.

7. Information regarding the movement of fishing vessels. — If the owner of a fishing vessel desires to shift the vessel from one port area to the other, he shall inform such movement in Form H to the authorised officer and also to the port officer having jurisdiction over the area where such fishing vessel has been moved.

8. Returns to be made by the owners of fishing vessels. — Every owner of a fishing vessel shall, on or before the 7th of every month, submit a return in Form I to the authorised officer in respect of his vessel.

9. Appeals against the order of authorised officer. — Every appeal under section 16 shall be made to the Secretary to the Government of Goa, Daman and Diu, Secretariat-Panaji dealing with the Department of Fisheries.

10. Disposal of seized fish, etc. — (1) Every fishing vessel impounded under section 18 shall be kept in the port nearest to the place of seizure and so long as it continues to be impounded, shall be under the control of the port officer concerned.

(2) Every owner of the impounded fishing vessel shall keep on board of such vessel, at his cost, such number of crew which are necessary for keeping the vessel in good condition.

(3) The authorised officer shall, if suitable facilities are not available for storage of fish seized, dispose such fish by holding public auction and deposit the amount so realised in the first instance in the office of the Directorate of Fisheries and as soon as the amount excess Rs. 500/- he shall deposit in the office of the adjudicating officer. The authorised officer shall also furnish to the adjudicating officer full details regarding the date, time, place of auction, the number of persons who were present for bidding and other relevant particulars.

11. Manner of conducting inquiry by the adjudicating Officer. — (1) On receipt of the report of the authorised officer under sub-section (1) of section 20, the adjudicating officer shall cause a notice to be served on the owner of the fishing vessel in any of the manners provided in rule 16.

(2) The notice shall give the details of the contravention of the provisions of Act or Rules or any of the conditions of the licence by the fishing vessel concerned and call upon the owner to show cause as to why he should not be punished for the afore-said contraventions.

(3) When a notice has been duly served and the owner fails to appear on the date fixed for hearing, the adjudicating officer may proceed to hear the matter ex-parte and pass such order on the basis of the material before him, as he may deem fit.

(4) Where the owner appears and contests the notice, he shall forthwith file a written statement verified in the same manner as a pleading under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 stating the reasons why he should not be punished for any such alleged contravention of the provisions of Act or the Rules or the conditions of the licence. The adjudicating officer shall, then either on the same day or on any subsequent day to which the hearing may be adjourned, proceed to hear the evidence, if any, which may be adduced before him.

(5) After the evidence has been recorded in a summary manner, the adjudicating officer may also hear the parties and pass such order as may deem fit in accordance with the provision of section 21 of the Act.

(6) Every order passed by the adjudicating officer shall be communicated to the owner of the vessel and also to the authorised officer.

12. Qualifications of the members of the Appellate Board. — No person shall be qualified for appointment as a Member unless he is: —

- (i) an advocate for not less than five years; or
- (ii) holding a superior post in the legal Department of any Government for not less than five years.
- (iii) a Judicial officer of five years standing.

13. Procedure of the Appellate Board. — (1) Every petition of appeal from an order of the adjudicating officer shall be presented to the Appellate Board in person or through a legal practitioner or a recognised agent.

(2) Every petition shall state succinctly the grounds of appeal and shall be accompanied by a copy of the order appealed against unless the Appellate Board dispenses with such copy.

(3) The Appellate Board shall on receipt of a petition of appeal, give notice of such appeal to all persons concerned who, in its opinion may be interested in the same.

(4) The Appellate Board, while hearing an appeal, may admit additional evidence before its final disposal or may remand the case for admission of additional evidence and report or a fresh decision, as it may deem fit.

(5) A fee of Rupees fifty in the form of court fee adhesive stamps shall be payable in respect of each appeal.

(6) The Appellate Board shall, while hearing an appeal, follow the procedure followed by an Appellate Court under the Criminal Procedure Code, 1973 (Central Act 2 of 1974) while disposing criminal appeals.

14. Allowances payable to Chairman and Members of the Appellate Board.— (1) The Chairman shall be paid a sum of Rs. 100/- per sitting as honorarium:

(2) Each Member of the Appellate Board shall be paid a sum of Rs. 50/- per sitting as honorarium:

Provided that the Board shall not have more than ten sittings per month.

15. Fees payable for certified copies of orders.— (1) A fee of Rs. 2/- shall be payable for supply of a certified copy of any order passed by any officer or authority under the Act.

2. The fees shall be paid in the form of Court fee adhesive stamps.

16. Manner of service or publication of notice, summons or order.— Every notice, summons or order under the Act or under these rules shall be served in one or more of the following modes, namely:—

a) by delivering or tendering it to the person concerned or his manager or agent, if any;

b) by leaving it at the last known place of business of the person concerned or by delivering or tendering it to some adult member of the family;

c) by sending it by registered post A/D;

d) by affixing it on some conspicuous part of the premises concerned or at the last known place of business or residence of the person concerned or by publication in a daily newspaper or by proclamation by beat of drum in the locality or in any other customary mode.
